RESPONSE TO OFFICE COMMUNICATION

Commissioner for Patents
P. O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

In response to the Office Communication mailed November 29, 2006, please consider the remarks below.

As clearly stated in Applicant's last response of October 17, 2006 ("Nonetheless, should the Examiner require restriction, the applicants hereby provisionally elect with traverse the composition claims, i.e. claims 60-69," the fourth paragraph on page 5), Applicant fails to understand why the response was not fully responsive for not making an election between the composition claims and the method claims.

Once again, Applicant hereby provisionally elects the composition claims (i.e., claims 60-69) with traverse in the above referenced application, and reserve the right to further pursue any non-elected subject matter in due course.

As this response is submitted within the one month shortened statutory period, it is believed that no fees and charges are required at this time in connection with the application.

Respectfully submitted,

George G. Wang, Ph.D., Reg. No. 41,419
Attorney for Applicants
